

Maluti

The Maluti village is just fifteen kilometers from Rampurhat railway station, where the Mouliksha Debi's Mandir is situated. It is one of the oldest temples of this area, dated nearly 300 years ago. Though geographically, the village is in santhal oriented Dumka district of Jharkhand. Previously, Muluti was within Birbhum only but now also the 500 families of villagers speak Bengali language and not the local language of Dumka. The village is sanctified by the river Brahmani and Ma Mouliksha, the Holy Goddess. It has become a good pilgrimage for many from far around.

Waterfall

The Dassam Falls is a natural cascade across the Kanchi River, a tributary of the Subarnarekha River. The water falls from a height of 44 metres (144 ft). The sound of water echoes all around the place. Dassam Falls at one of the edges of the Ranchi plateau is one of the many scarp falls in the region.
